

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

On 17.07.2025, Department of English inaugurated English Literary Association. During the ceremony, badges and sashes are presented to the nominated representatives and duties assigned to them. The event fosters leadership, accountability and a sense of commitment among the students.

On 17.07.2025, a guest lecture was given by Dr.V.L.Sathya, Assistant Professor& Head, Shri SakthiKailassh Women's College, Salem on "A Brief Introduction on Indian Writing".

On the occasion of celebrating 78th Independence Day, the few Competitions were conducted by Department of English to identify the talents and patriotism among the students. The Competitions are Reel Making Contest, Elocution in English, Essay writing in English and Pencil Drawing. The students actively participated in all the competitions.

On January 24, 2025, a one day conference titled Subalternity and Resistance: Literature as a Tool was held at Loyola College, Mettala, with a focus on exploring how literature functions as both a tool of resistance and a means to highlight the experiences of marginalized or subaltern groups. The conference brought together scholars, faculty members, and students for insightful discussions on the intersection of literature, subalternity, and resistance.

The Education trip was organized by Department of English, Loyola College of Arts and Science (Co-Ed) on 26.03.2025 & 27.03.2025 to Ooty with the goal of exposing students to both natural beauty and cultural heritage while engaging in academic discussions related to various fields such as geography, environmental studies, history, and ecology.

The Farewell Program for the final-year students of B.A English was organized as a heartfelt send-off to mark the culmination of their academic journey at Loyola College of Arts & Science (Co-Ed). This event was a moment to celebrate their achievements, reflect on the experiences shared during their time in college, and look forward to their future endeavours.