

He has sixteen years of academic experience and three years of industrial experience. He has done his BBA degree at Madras University, Chennai. He obtained an MBA from Anna University and M.Com. from Madras University. He completed M.Phil in Commerce from Bharathiyar University. Current academic pursuits include a Ph.D. in Management at Annamalai University. Financial accounting, corporate accounting and cost & management accounting are among his areas of expertise. He also has a strong interest in research areas, including financial and portfolio management as well as research techniques.