

He is an accomplished academician with vast experience in both teaching and student management. He is currently serving as the, a role in which he oversees various student-related activities, ensuring a conducive academic environment for growth and success. Additionally, he holds the position of Assistant Professor in the Department of Business Administration (BBA), where he imparts his expertise to undergraduate students, focusing on management education.

Before joining Loyola College of Arts & Science, Mr. Saravanan had significant teaching experience in various institutions. His professional journey began as a Communicative English Trainer at WICE, Jayamkondam, where he honed his skills in language teaching. Following that, he worked as a Communicative English Trainer at SIET, Ulunthupet, where he contributed to improving the language proficiency of students.

Mr. Saravanan's association with AVS College of Arts and Science, Ramalingapuram, Salem, has been notable. He worked in the MBA Department, providing valuable academic contributions to the institution, and later transitioned into his role at Loyola College, Mettala. His expertise in communication, management, and student development has made him a respected figure in the academic community.