

She completed undergraduate studies at Sri Saradha College for Women, Salem and pursued her postgraduate degree at Government Arts college for Women. Following this, she obtained her M.Phil from Periyar University in Salem. She completed her Ph.D in Dravidian University. With a professional experience spanning 14.4 years, she has authored papers in various esteemed journals. Her research interests predominantly revolve around Human Resource Management & Marketing.