

She completed her undergraduate degree at Government College for Women, Salem-8 and done her Post-Graduation at Holy Cross College, Trichy and done her M.Phil at Shri Sakthikailassh Women's College, Salem and completed her B.Ed at Annai Teresa College of Education, Thammampatty. She has 9 years of teaching experience in Arts& Science College. She has done a research at Australian Literature in the aboriginal perspective. Her area of specialization is Literary Theories, Literary History, Linguistics Afro-American Literature and Australian Literature. She is known for her amiable approach and particularly interested in exploring in the field of Linguistics. She believes in fostering an interactive learning environment where students feel encouraged to engage critically with course material, ask questions, and explore new ideas. In the classroom, she aims to create an environment where students not only learn to appreciate the beauty of language but also develop critical thinking skills that will serve them well beyond literature. She is fascinated by how literature interacts with historical, social, and political contexts, and her research often examines Identity Crisis, such as the relationship between narrative forms and social change, the role of literature in shaping cultural identity.