

He completed his Bachelor's degree at St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Tiruchirappalli. He obtained his Master's degree from St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Palayamkottai, and his M. Phil. degree from Loyola College (Autonomous), Chennai. He was honoured with the Student Projects Scheme - Best Project Model Award from the Tamil Nadu State Council for Science and Technology, recognizing his contributions to innovative student research projects. He has 10 years of teaching experience in physics undergraduate students. In addition to his academic responsibilities, he actively serves as the Advisor of AICUF (All India Catholic University Federation), where he contributes to student leadership, community engagement, and social empowerment initiatives.