

Antony Markus, SJ, is a Jesuit priest with a strong academic background in economics and management. He completed his undergraduate degree in Economics at Loyola College, Chennai, and went on to earn a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Madras, Tamil Nadu. He also holds a Postgraduate Diploma in Business Management (PGDBM) from Loyola Institute of Business Administration (LIBA), Chennai.

He was awarded his doctoral degree from Sacred Heart College, Tirupattur, for his thesis titled “Entrepreneurial Motivation among Dalit Entrepreneurs in their Entrepreneurial Ventures in Coimbatore and Erode Districts.”

In the field of research, he has made notable contributions through publications, including one paper in a Scopus-indexed journal, one in a Web of Science journal, two in UGC CARE-listed journals, two in international journals, and one in a national journal.

Furthermore, he has actively participated in academic forums by presenting six papers at international conferences and one at a national conference. He has also completed four online NPTEL courses, along with several offline certification programmes, Faculty Development Programmes (FDPs), and various online certification courses.