

Catherine Divaina L

Assistant Professor

Department of Business Administration

Loyola College of Arts & Science, Mettala, Namakkal

Catherine Divaina is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Business Administration at Loyola College of Arts & Science, Mettala. She joined the institution as an Assistant Professor in June 2026.

Prior to taking up her teaching role, she served as a Typist-cum-PA to the Principal at the same institution, gaining valuable experience in academic administration, institutional coordination, documentation, and office management.

She holds an M.Sc. in Mathematics from Bharathidasan University and an MBA in Human Resource Management from Annamalai University. She completed her B.Sc. in Mathematics from Loyola College of Arts & Science, Mettala.

Her academic interests include Management, Human Resource Management, Business Administration, Organisational Behaviour, and Entrepreneurship. She is interested in adopting learner-centred teaching methods and integrating digital and AI-based tools into classroom teaching to make learning more interactive and practical.

Areas of Interest:

Management • Human Resource Management • Organisational Behaviour • Entrepreneurship • Digital Learning • Student Development